Reminders When Commenting or Asking Questions in Class:

- 1. Make sure that the question or comment is related to the topic being discussed in class.
- 2. Make sure that it is an appropriate time to ask the question or make a comment.
- 3. Raise your hand and wait to be called upon before making a comment or asking a question.
- 4. After asking a question or making a comment, remember to let the teacher respond.
- 5. Remember that other students in the class may have questions or want to make comments. Limit your questions and comments to three per class.
