Example: Behavior Cue Cards for Cammie M’s Team (Bus Ride)

Looks Like:
Ready to Learn
- smiling
- staying in seat
- complying with staff directions
- positive interactions with peers
- kind, pleasant tone of voice

Looks Like:
Rumbling
- some resistance to directions
- angry tone of voice
- quiet/distant
- looking out window
- arguing with staff/peers

Looks Like:
Crisis
- yelling
- throwing
- hitting
- out of seat

Options:
Teach and Reinforce
- Build a positive relationship with bus staff
- Provide a job (reading) to give a positive sense of leadership and adult approval
- Prime for expectations on the bus in a fun way for all using visual cues
- Reinforce positive behaviors

Options:
Consider Triggers
- Refrain from power struggle
- Offer calming /sensory supports (blanket, sunglasses, headphones)
- Model calm voice and deep breathing
- Distract and redirect to a preferred activity such as reading or tracing map
- Allow her to share her concerns in a respectful manner

Options:
Crisis Plan
- If needed, move other students to a different seat and instruct them to refrain from comments
- Use visual behavior cues rather than verbally engage
- Do not try to teach/process behaviors in the moment
- Redirect to seat or safe area
- Allow time/space to de-escalate to yellow
