

Developing the Learner Profile and Student Portfolios for Early Transition Planning

Join us in this virtual session to learn about Learner Profiles and how they can help document student specific access supports, early learning data, and Pre-K and elementary interests and skills that can lead to later transition planning. Pair this with student portfolios that showcase student learning and lend themselves to students participating in student-led conferences and IEP meetings.

Thursday, May 9, 2024

2:30-4:30 pm

Register Here!

Hosted by:

