

Building pathways to community-based adult lives for individuals with disabilities

- Starting With the Individual
- Bringing Experts Together
- Free, Timely Resources Connecting Research to Real Life

The Lifespan Transitions Center works to equip communities to support the successful and unique transition of individuals with disabilities to ensure they can live their best lives for their whole lives.

www.ocali.org/center/transitions

Resources for Employment, Community Membership, and Adult Living

- Updated Transition to Adulthood Guidelines: School and Community Employment
- Take 5 Webinars for topical resources offered through short videos
- What Works for Work: Evidence Based Practices training materials and resources

Visit the Lifespan Transitions Center website to access additional resources and information

www.ocali.org/center/transitions