

Inspiring Change for People with Disabilities

A photograph of three young children smiling. On the left is a girl with long blonde hair and purple-rimmed glasses. In the middle is a girl with dark skin and a white flower in her hair. On the right is a girl with dark skin and braided hair. The image has a greenish-blue tint.

INSPIRING

A photograph of two men wearing aprons and caps, looking down at something in their hands. They appear to be in a kitchen or food service area. The image has a blue tint.

CHANGE

A photograph of a man with glasses and a child with glasses, both smiling and looking at each other. The man is wearing a blue patterned shirt. The image has a purple tint.

PROMOTING

A photograph of several young children sitting on the floor and playing with toys. The image has a warm, orange-yellow tint.

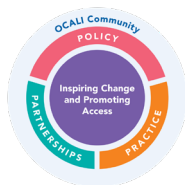

ACCESS

OCALI is a recognized global leader in creating and connecting resources and relationships to ensure that people with disabilities have the OPPORTUNITY TO LIVE THEIR BEST LIVES for their whole lives.

WWW.OCALI.ORG

OCALI's Core Functions

Our work revolves around three key components: collaborating through partnerships, informing public policies, and developing and deploying best practices.

As a trusted source, OCALI enhances, develops, and promotes high-quality programs and services to effectively equip anyone who cares for, supports, educates, employs, or works with people with disabilities across the lifespan.

Autism Center

Universal Design for Learning Center

Lifespan Transitions Center

Teaching Diverse Learners Center

Family Center

Center for the Young Child

Lending Library

The Outreach Center for Deafness and Blindness

Office of Policy

Assistive Technology & Accessible Educational Materials Center

Multi-System Navigation Center

OCALI has impacted the lives of more than half a million families, caregivers, and professionals across the world!

614.410.0321 or ocali@ocali.org

