

Sensory-Friendly Morning

presented by White Castle

July 31, 10 a.m. - 1 p.m.

We're turning down the lights and volume to make the Ohio State Fair more sensory-friendly in partnership with OCALI. Ride the rides with no flashing lights or music, visit the Fair's many educational activities, take a break in a quiet room or use our accessibility guide to find a Fair opportunity that suits you.

Assisted Listening Devices

Free assisted listening devices are available for use at the WCOL Celeste Center, Main Street Stage and the UnitedHealthcare Gazebo Stage. Visitors must leave a photo ID.

Accessible Seating

Accessible seats for concerts in the WCOL Celeste Center can be purchased at the same cost directly from Ticketmaster by toggling the switch with the wheelchair icon or selecting a seat with a wheelchair icon. For additional questions, please call Ticketmaster Fan Support at 1-800- 653-8000. Standing is not permitted in accessible seating areas.

Support for Individuals who are Blind or Have Low Vision

Individuals who are blind or have low vision wearing their Aira Horizon Smart

Glasses or using the Aira app at the Ohio State Fair can access real-time agents to describe their surroundings for free. Thanks to a partnership with Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities and the National Federation of the Blind, those who are blind or have low vision can more easily navigate the Fair.

Dietary Options

While you may think of food on a stick, there are many food options that fit various special dietary programs, such as gluten-free and dairy-free. You can search the Fair's entire food database at ohiostatefair.com/food. Be sure to check with the vendor on any hidden ingredients and for cross-contamination, but here are a few foods that are typically free of gluten and dairy at the Fair:

- Corn and corn products: Roasted sweet corn and other products made with corn, such as tacos, nachos and taco salad, can be safe bets when avoiding gluten.
- Dole Pineapple Whip: This favorite treat has the smooth taste of soft serve ice cream with no dairy and no gluten.
- French Fries: French fries are usually gluten-free, so if you're looking for a yummy fried option at the Fair, this is a great bite to try! However, make sure you ask vendors about cross contamination. If french fries share a fryer with gluten containing foods, those with serious gluten intolerances or celiac disease should avoid this option.
- Frozen Drinks: Most syrups for slushies, snow cones and Kona Ice are gluten-free.
- Iced Tea: Ohio summers are warm, so cool off with this gluten-free beverage.

- Meat: Whether you love steak on a stick, chicken, mouthwatering ribs (including those sauced up by Famous Gabby's Inc.), slow-cooked pulled pork, turkey legs, sausage or tenderloin, meat options are usually a safe bet for those avoiding gluten.
- Schmidt's of German Village: Schmidt's, which has been a Fair tradition for over a decade, offers many different gluten-free menu options. Try a Bahama Mama, bratwurst, chicken bratwurst, all beef frankfurter, German Potato Salad or sauerkraut to taste Fair tradition.
- Giuseppe's Concessions: The Caribbean Island noodles with chicken, pork or vegetables at this new stand are both gluten free and dairy free.
